Michael Nelson

Mike Nelson, trombonist, is the leader of the internationally acclaimed group, "The Hornheads."

From 1991 to 1994 members of "The Hornheads" performed with Prince and the NPG for over two million concert goers in more than 15 countries. Q Magazine, London, described them as "a peerless horn section. . . punching with a staccato precision beyond the grasp of science or Synclavier. Prince splashes their insouciant versatility all over the set list." This highly skilled and experienced horn section is now available for recording, performing, and touring.

"The Hornheads" free-lance individually as top session and show players, and have performed and recorded with Janet Jackson, James Brown, Dizzy Gillespie, Tony Bennett, Chaka Kahn, Doc Severinson, Michael Bolton, Sammy Davis, Jr., the Temptations, Celine Dion, and many others.
