Suite from the Ballet "Pineapple Poll"

Arthur Sullivan, Charles Mackerras

1. Opening Number
2. Jasper's Dance
3. Poll's Dance
4. Finale

Arthur Sullivan, the English genius of the musical theater, did not write the ballet "Pineapple Poll". The ballet is one which Charles Mackerras assembled for the Sadler's Wells Ballet Company from the vast wealth of compelling tunes which Sullivan composed in collaboration with William S. Gilbert. W. J. Duthoit arranged these four excerpts from the Sullivan-Mackerras ballet for concert band.

Fantasies on a Theme by Haydn

Norman Dello Joio

Norman Dello Joio has written for almost every conceivable combination of instruments. He has contributed a number of major works to the concert band repertoire. Fantasies on a Theme by Haydn, commissioned by the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, is dedicated to Mr. Leonard Falcone, Director of Bands at Michigan State University, upon his retirement, in recognition of devoted service to music, to education, and to his colleagues. The composer says of this fantasia: "This work for band is based on a theme from a composition for piano by Joseph Haydn. The subtly conceived theme, I concluded, offered an opportunity to fantasize in the musical language of today. The three movements are a constantly varied examination of Haydn's basic idea. The bubbling humor of the first and third fantasies flank a second which is intensely lyric. In the final sense, it is my homage to a composer who will always remain contemporary."

Aegean Festival Overture

Andreas Makris

Aegean Festival Overture was written in 1967 as an orchestral overture for the Washington National Symphony and was premiered by that group under Howard Mitchell a year later at Constitution Hall. Its immediate success then and on tour occasioned the collaboration between Mr. Makris and Major Albert Bader of the United States Air Force Band to arrange the overture as a concert piece for band. It has since been premiered and featured on tour by the USAF band under the direction of Colonel Arnald Gabriel.

From its first hammering dotted eighth rhythms, the Aegean Festival Overture reflects the Greek origins of its composer, who was born in Salonika, a colorful Aegean seaport. The driving energy of the fast section with its restless 5's and 7's and the lyric plaintiveness of the contrasting middle section, all molded into a symphonic form, epitomize the musical style of Makris--a blend of classic form and Greek folkloristic elements.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN - EAU CLAIRE SYMPHONY BAND

The University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire Symphony Band is a select group of the most highly qualified musicians on campus regardless of their major area of study. Repertoire is carefully selected to represent the finest in music for concert band, balancing an emphasis on contemporary literature with works drawn from preceding periods and styles. The Symphony Band rehearses five hours each week and presents several concerts on campus each year. In addition, the band goes on tour for four days in the spring. The 90-piece Symphony Band is one of three concert bands at UWEC thus giving all instrumentalists in the University the opportunity to gain experience and enjoyment from band participation and performance.

Donald S. George, Conductor of the Symphony Band, received his education at Ohio Wesleyan University, the Eastman School of Music, Mannes College in New York City, and Teachers College, Columbia University. He has studied clarinet with Rufus Arey and Robert McGinnis. His teaching experience has been in the public schools of New Jersey, having been Director of Music for Midland Park, N.J., Public Schools for eleven years. He has also taught at Teachers College, Columbia University, and has been Director of Bands at the Glassboro State College Summer Fine Arts Camp. Dr. George joined the faculty of the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire in September 1968. At the University he is Director of University Bands and teaches clarinet. He is also a member of the Faculty Woodwind Quintet and directs the University Clarinet Choir.
