

The Not so Happy Holidays

By Sam Wedl

The Corona Virus has killed the vibe,
It has ruined the Holiday season.
I miss my family, they are my tribe,
but we must stay apart for a reason.

First, the Corona canceled thanksgiving, limiting it to those in your household.
Knowing that it can be unforgiving,
We decided to do what we were told.

However Corona did not stop there,
it has taken people that I care for.
Making the holiday season hard to bear,
and at this point, I'm angry to my core.

So thanks Corona for all that you've done.
you've canceled all of the holiday fun.
