Gantner Concert Hall

Haas Fine Arts Center

Hosted by the UW-Eau Claire Collegiate Chapter of the National Band Association

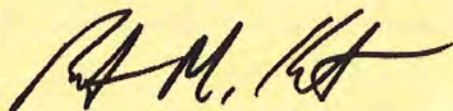

Welcome!

On behalf of the students and faculty of the Department of Music and Theatre Arts, I am pleased to welcome you to the 2007 Indianhead Honors Band Concert. The region's most talented high school musicians are part of the ensemble you will hear this evening. Congratulations to tonight's performers and to the high school music programs they represent.

Also performing on tonight's program will be the UW-Eau Claire Wind Symphony. This ensemble offers students the opportunity to perform a wide range of challenging literature for wind ensembles. The ensemble is but a part of the large, well-established programs of study in the Department of Music and Theatre Arts. The many choral and instrumental groups perform music ranging from traditional music for choir, orchestra, wind ensemble to jazz, opera and musical theatre.

Over four hundred forty majors and minors in the Department of Music and Theatre Arts are working toward degrees in music education, performance, composition, music theory, creative and technical theatre, and dance. National recognition for the quality of UW-Eau Claire and the Department of Music and Theatre Arts has come in the form of mentions in U.S. News and World Report's annual College Guide, Down-Beat magazine, and the American Choral Director's Association. Know that you are always welcome on our campus and in the department. Come and enjoy one of the many concerts, recitals, and main stage theatre productions and experience for yourself the UW-Eau Claire difference!

Dr. Jerry A. Young is Professor of Tuba and Euphonium and Coordinator of the Wind and Percussion Area at the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire. Young has been a member of the music faculty since 1983. He teaches applied tuba and euphonium, directs the BASSically BRASS euphonium/tuba ensemble, as well as teaching courses in music education and the university honors program. His former students enjoy successful careers as music educators, in music industry, and in leading orchestras and military bands in the U.S. and abroad. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the International Tuba/Euphonium Association and the Leonard Falcone International Euphonium and Tuba Festival. Dr. Young's publications include editions of the complete Arban Method for Tuba, Herbert L. Clarke's Technical Studies (edited for euphonium and tuba), and the Kopprasch 60 Studies for tuba. An active performer, Young is principal tubist with the Eau Claire Chamber Orchestra, the UW-Eau Claire Faculty Faculty Brass Quintet, and Eau Claire Brassworks. He is also a member of Symphonia, an 18-piece euphonium and tuba ensemble comprised of top performers from across the U.S. Dr. Young has appeared throughout the world as a soloist, chamber musician, clinician, lecturer, and adjudicator.

Richard Mark Heidel is Director of Bands and Associate Professor of Music in the Department of Music and Theatre Arts at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire where he conducts the Wind Symphony, teaches courses in conducting and repertoire, supervises student teachers, serves as advisor to the National Band Association-Collegiate Chapter, and coordinates the UW-Eau Claire band program. Under his direction, the Wind Symphony has performed at the Wisconsin Music Educators Association State Conference, Illinois Music Educators Association All-State Conference, National Band Association-Wisconsin Chapter State Convention as well as on annual concert tours throughout Wisconsin and Minnesota. Dr. Heidel maintains a busy schedule as a guest conductor, adjudicator, clinician, guest lecturer, trumpet performer, and custom drill designer. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the National Band Association, NBA-Wisconsin Chapter, and the International Music Camp (Honorary Member), and he has served on the Board of Directors of the Shell Lake Arts Center and Texas Tech Band Alumni Association. Dr. Heidel has presented clinics at state music conferences in Illinois, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and Wisconsin as well as guest lectures at Texas Tech University, University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Ohio University, Bowling Green State University, Oakland University, and the University of Illinois. Heidel has served as guest conductor, adjudicator and clinician in Alaska, Texas, New Mexico, Georgia, Nebraska, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Colorado, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Washington, D.C., and Ontario, Canada. In 2003, Heidel served as an adjudicator for the Limerick International Marching Band Competition and the 100th St. Patrick's Day Festival in Dublin, Ireland.
