THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

The University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Department of Music is acclaimed for the high quality of both its faculty and student body. The aim of the department is to graduate students who are capable of pursuing successful careers in the field of music. While expecting a high level of accomplishment, it is the department's goal to give each student every possible aid in achieving the excellence required of a successful musician.

The faculty includes artists in all performing areas of music and specialists in music education, music therapy, music literature, music history, and composition. In addition, the conductors of each of the ensembles, which includes the bands, orchestra, and choirs, are recognized authorities in their respective fields.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-EAU CLAIRE SYMPHONY BAND

Since 1968, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Band Program has grown to include over 200 students. The Symphony Band is a select group of the most highly qualified musicians on campus regardless of their major area of study. Repertoire is carefully selected to represent the finest in music for concert band, balancing an emphasis on contemporary literature with works drawn from preceding periods and styles. Performances by the Symphony Band have received praise from conductors William D. Revelli, Frederick Fennell, Merle Evans, and Harry Begian. Composers Norman Dello Joio, Karel Husa, Elie Seigmeister, Carlos Surinach, Vincent Persichetti, Jim Curnow, and Johan de Meij have praised the Symphony Band for its interpretation of their compositions. The Symphony Band rehearses five hours each week and presents several concerts on campus each year. In addition, the band goes on tour in the spring. The 71-piece Symphony Band is one of three concert bands at UW-EC, thus giving all instrumentalists at the university the opportunity to gain experience and enjoyment from band participation and performance.
