About the soloists...

BILL BERRY's appearance at the 1986 UW-Eau Claire Jazz Festival marks his third visit to Eau Claire in the past six years. A featured guest artist at the 1980 UW-Eau Claire Jazz Festival, Mr. Berry also toured as guest soloist/clinician with the UW-Eau Claire Jazz Ensemble I in 1983. A featured trumpeter with the Woody Herman and Maynard Ferguson bands and a charter member of the Thad Jones/Mel Lewis Orchestra, Mr. Berry received international acclaim for his work with the Duke Ellington Orchestra during the mid-1960's. Since moving to Los Angeles with the Merv Griffin Show, he has performed and recorded with Louis Bellson, Don Menza, the Frank Capp/Nat Pierce Juggernaut, and a host of other groups. Additionally, his own outstanding big band has received unanimous rave reviews for its performances and recordings on Concord Records and on Bill's own "Beez" label. He recently completed a tour of Japan with the great Benny Carter, and he has become a fixture at the Monterey Jazz Festival, where he not only directs his own band, but for the past five years has also been the director of the California All-State High School Jazz Ensemble. We are very pleased to once again have him here as our guest.

DAVE FRISHBERG has enjoyed a career which would be envied by any musician for both its quality and its diversity. Long known as one of the outstanding pianists in jazz, Mr. Frishberg has additionally established himself as a major composer and as one of the great singer/pianists of our era. Beginning his career as the house pianist at The Half Note in New York City, he performed regularly with most of the major jazz artists of the time, including Clark Terry, Bob Brookmeyer, Zoot Sims, and Al Cohn. He moved to Los Angeles in the early 1970's to write for television; since then he has recorded with Manhattan Transfer, Jimmy Rushing, Herb Alpert, Bill Berry's LA Band, and a host of other artists. He has become best known, however, for his songwriting and for his performances of his own songs. His work has been performed and recorded by Cleo Laine, Jackie and Roy, Blossom Dearie, and others. His solo performance at Carnegie Recital Hall as part of the 1985 Kool Jazz Festival received unanimous critical acclaim, and his last three solo albums have all received Grammy nominations. He has been featured in major concert halls and clubs throughout the world, and has appeared as a guest on The Tonight Show a number of times. We are very pleased to have the opportunity to present him at this year's festival.
